

AUTHOR'S SNAPSHOT - HON. ZENaida N. ELEPANO

Hon. Elepano is a former Regional Trial Court Judge of Metro Manila, now Administrator of the Supreme Court of the Philippines. Her experience with case management and associated judicial reforms is extensive having previously held the positions of:

- Chairperson, Supreme Court Judicial Support Reform Program (Component on Case Adjudication and Accessibility of Justice);
- Project Director, Caseflow Management in the courts of Pasay City, MetroManila, Philippines.

As Professorial Lecturer and Chairperson of the Department of Court Management, and Vice-Chair, Department of Legal Method and Research, both of the Philippine Judicial Academy Hon. Elepano has high-level academic experience underpinning her court-based work. This is further demonstrated by her authorship of the Handbook on Caseflow Management in Philippine Trial Courts, and of other monographs, treatises and other dissertations on court administration and management. Other relevant experience included roles as Project Implementer of the Mobile Court System for the Philippine Courts, and Bar Reviewer and Philippine Bar Examiner.

Hon. Elepano, and is a fellow of the Canadian Judicial Education Institute, and an alumnus of the Academy of Comparative American and International Law, (Dallas, Texas). She received her Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of Santo Tomas, Manila Philippines, and was editor of the Law Journal of the University's Faculty of Civil Law.